Cate Pates website

Wording to check, page by page

How to use this:

1. Print it, or open it on screen.
2. Each piece of wording you can change has a green number next to it.
3. Cross out anything you'd like to change and write your new wording next to it, or on the back. Just mention the page and the number.

Or type your changes into the Google Doc "Website wording for Cate", which lists the same numbers.

Not in here: workshops, galleries, media and the Art Trail notice. Those come from your Google Sheet, so you change them there.

5 Good to know

6 Do I need any experience?
7 None at all. Workshops are made for beginners.

8 When do I get my piece?
9 Cate takes everything away to be fired and glazed, then it's ready to collect a few weeks later.

10 Where are workshops held?
11 Venues change from session to session. Each listing shows where, and you register through the link on each workshop.

12 What should I wear?
13 Clothes you don't mind getting a little clay on.

14 What if I can't come?
15 Cancel 7 or more days before for a full refund of the ticket price or a transfer to another workshop. After that you can pass your place to a friend. If a workshop has to be cancelled, you'll get a full refund or a transfer to another workshop. See the workshop terms.

16 Can I book for a group?
17 Yes. Cate can run a private session for friends, a workplace or a celebration.

18 A birthday, a team day or a gift? Cate can bring a private workshop to your group.

About Cate

Cate Pates is a ceramic artist living in Maungaraki, in the hills above Lower Hutt.

Born in England, she earned a BA (Hons) in Ceramics from the University of Wales Institute in Cardiff, Wales (UK). She makes storybook pieces: foxes, hares, owls and ravens, lace-textured hanging houses, and vessels inscribed with her own poetry. Her work has been shown in solo exhibitions and galleries in New Zealand, Australia and the UK, and she runs clay workshops around Wellington.

> "As a child I used to spend hours making animals out of fimo and telling stories with them. Now the materials may have changed slightly but the soul drive is still the same. Foxes, hares, owls and ravens hold spiritual significance for me."

"I use earthenware clay and hand build each piece, using multiple firings to get the finish I desire. My glazes are made from scratch, and I draw directly onto the bisqued pieces with ceramic pencils."

CATE PATES

> "I like to include aspects of nature, and use my own poetry and drawing to invoke feeling and depth."
